Experience Tramontina's Made in Brazil and Unprecedented Innovation
Company expands presence at National Restaurant Association Show

SUGAR LAND, Texas – With increased focus on the hospitality industry, Tramontina is proud to expand its presence at the National Restaurant Association Show® in 2023 to showcase its broadest range of products designed to meet the needs of industry professionals and end-users alike. This will include extensive new innovations and offerings in porcelain tabletop, flatware, and furniture, plus Tramontina's renowned NSF®-Certified cookware and cutlery collections.

Tramontina is a global housewares leader that embraces more than a century of experience and tradition to manufacture professional-grade products in its 11 Brazilian factories. It elevates the hospitality experience with time-honored craftsmanship and a commitment to the utmost in precision, safety, and efficiency.

Tramontina will debut a new booth focused on enhancing the hospitality experience with high quality, design, and innovation. It will feature a wide range of Made-in-Brazil products that check all the boxes for restaurants, chefs, hotels and more.

For more information, visit the Tramontina booth #1413 (South Building) at the National Restaurant Association Show, or call Tramontina USA at 281.884.3084 or Mark Dimmick at 973.747.4772 or visit Tramontina.com/foodservice.
